Covid continues to spread through the fully vaxxed-1 @NHL

SENATORS GAMES POSTPONED AT LEAST THROUGH NOV. 20

The National Hockey League announced today that as a result of 10 Ottawa Senators Players currently in the NHL's COVID Protocol, and evidence of continued spread in recent days, the team's games will be postponed at least through Saturday, Nov. 20. The decision was made by the League's, NHLPA and Club's medical groups.

As an appropriate precaution, the team's training facilities have been closed, effective immediately, and will remain closed for Players until further notice. The League is in the process of reviewing and revising the Senators' regular season schedule.

The Senators organization has, and will continue to follow, all recommended guidelines aimed at protecting the health and safety of its Players, staff and community at large as set by the NHL, local, provincial and national agencies.
